

Debunking ceremony (6/30/06)

Encourage members to purchase squirt guns, fill them.

Hunting Camp -camping stuff.

Various members show up at camp with something to say.

Somebody show up with a Dick Cheney mask.

Every time John takes a hit for missing an event due to work, squirt guns come out.

Mel Bandanza: John is the hardest working president in ages, see the number of new members this year, but due to self employment, but Rotary events have suffered.

Jerry: Almaden Art Festival and those great root beer floats, John AWOL due to work.

Ed: Cambrian October Fest, right down the street from his business, and free beer! John AWOL due to work.

Rich: Car Rally, winery to winery, John AWOL due to work.

Paul C. Columbus Day, He WAS there, Never Misses a party!

Paul V. Thanksgiving Food for the less fortunate, John AWOL due to work.

Paul U. Senior Lunch, John AWOL, no wait, he WAS there, never misses a good steak!

Bill S. Christmas Gift Wrap Party, Emphasis on Party, John AWOL due to work?

Ken: Ken is a good choice for "Youth Services" (Hold up baby)

Joe P.: John went to the wrong house twice, board meeting at Joe Pileggi's house
Roger Bier's old address, new address, finally Joe's.

Earl: Fish from the fishing day complaining about the long ride in the truck, the cold water in the lake, and the catch and release by kids with grubby fingers.

Bruce C.: Joannie writing the president's leaf.

Johnny G.: Golf, never miss this event!

Jim Guido: Good relations with the District are important, but the 2005 Allstar Football pre game activities clearly show John hugging the district governor.

Jeff: John, you are trooper, you have been president of two Rotary clubs. We need you to charter a new club. Here is its banner.

Final scene, "Brokeback Mountain Rotary Club"
